

Beginning Journalism

Type: English Elective

Duration: Yearlong

Prerequisites: None

In this class students learn all the skills necessary for creating a newspaper, from interviewing and researching sources to creating the layout for the pages. Lessons include writing news, opinion, features, sports, and entertainment stories; selling and creating advertisements; using PhotoShop, Page Maker and Word; photography and art. Students who earn an 'A' qualify to apply for the newspaper staff. Even if students do not join the staff, they definitely gain a lot of valuable skills by taking Beginning Journalism .