

ELD 2 provides intensive instruction and practice for students with a low to intermediate ability to speak English. It is designed to provide an introduction to the sound system, stress, and rhythmic patterns of the English language through listening and speaking exercises. Individualized instruction is included in order to improve basic reading comprehension. Practice in writing is required to improve the students' ability in writing basic sentence structures as well as incorporating grammar into their work.