

This is Natalie Seward's first official year as a counselor at Torrey Pines High School! She started her counseling career as an Intern at Torrey Pines High School in 2015.

Natalie earned her Bachelor of Science in Child and Adolescent Development with an emphasis in Education at California State University, Fullerton. She moved to San Diego to earn her Masters of Art degree in Counseling with an emphasis in School Counseling as well as a Personnel Services Credential (PPS) from the University of San Diego.

Natalie currently lives in Carlsbad with her husband, Neal.