

Profile of a Successful ISOL Student

- Student is motivated and able to complete work independently.
- Student has open access to computer and is able to access appropriate programs.
- Parent is involved and able to monitor student progress and in the ISOL course.
- Student has access to transportation to the site for required meetings and exams.
- Student is organized and elects to complete projects and work in a timely manner rather than procrastinating.
- Student will meet deadlines with efficiency.
- Student is not an early English language learner and has sufficient reading and comprehension skills to manage an online course

Please note: Most Fundamental Spec Educations students are not a good fit.