
Personal Statement

The four guiding pillars of the National Honor Society are Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Select one (1) of the four pillars and compose a statement in which you explore the influence of this pillar in your life. We suggest you include a personal experience in which the pillar taught you about yourself and developed your principles. Please use a minimum of 200 and a maximum of 300 words. Write or type and affix your response below.

Word Count _____

Closing Sentence

In one sentence of 25 words or less, please explain why the National Honor Society is a student organization in which you wish to participate.

Word Count _____
