

Video Film

Type: Visual and Performing Art

Duration: Year

Prerequisites: None

Study the historical progression of filmmaking. Learn the process of filmmaking from the creation of an idea to the completion of a project on tape. View film and student video projects from a critic's perspective and critique both professional and student films. Learn the terminology and the techniques associated with filmmaking. Invent ideas, write scripts, draw story boards, shoot video footage, and edit it into an artistic expression about the world